FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

God is Good! All the Time.

Beloved in Christ,

May I use this column to express my deepest sentiments of gratitude to You, dearest Parishioners of St Norbert's Roman Catholic Church, North York, for such a heart-warming welcome you accorded me.

May we continue to work together for the glorification of God, for the edification of the Church and for the salvation of our souls.

Wishing you a renewed and Spirit-filled Holy Week!

Fraternally yours in Christ,

Fr. Peter, CCE.

Some thoughts on today's scripture

Jesus chooses to make his entrance into Jerusalem on a donkey, which was the mount used by important people. The ease with which the owner of the donkey allows the animal to be taken seems to imply that he was a follower of Christ and responded to the needs of "the Master" very happily and easily.

The joy of the people contrasts very strongly with the attitude of the leaders of the Jews that has been the subject of our last few days. It happens that you might feel content at the respect the people show for Him. It is His last show of freedom before he allows Himself to be arrested. From now till His resurrection, we follow Him in Holy Week, noticing how the divinity hides itself.

La parabola dei vignaioli omicidi è di un realismo tale che potremmo considerarla come una teologia della storia.
L'omicidio è l'apogeo di una infedeltà continua, che nasconde naturalmente ingratitudine. È la storia dell'umanità e quella di ogni uomo, con i nostri limiti, le nostre ingiustizie, la nostra avarizia, le nostre ambizioni. Noi reagiamo spesso così davanti al bene che riceviamo dai nostri simili. Noi agiamo spesso così davanti alla bontà di Dio.
