OGGI la liturgia ci offre una delle scene più forti del Vangelo: Gesù e i venditori del tempio. La reazione di Gesù non è la collera che difende il proprio orgoglio né l'ira di qualche fanatico, ma la passione con cui il Figlio difende il Padre. Viene da pensare al giovane Gesù che parlava al suo "Abbà" dicendo: «La testimonianza del Signore è stabile, rende saggio il semplice» (Salmo).

Did you know....?

The festival of Passover, mentioned in today's Gospel passage, is in remembrance of the liberation of the Israelites from slavery in Egypt by God through Moses, as described in the Book of Exodus. The word "Passover" is related to the tenth and final plague God sent on the Egyptians, consisting of the death of the firstborn in every Egyptian house. God commands the Jews to slaughter a lamb and sprinkle the blood on the doorposts of their homes. This way, God would pass over every Jewish homes when the destroyer death comes by. This is where the name of this feast comes from: God passed over the Jewish homes.

Jesus cleaned out the temple of money-changers. He was angry; He was zealous; He spoke with authority. He was doing what He had to do even though it involved risk, danger, insult and wonder.

Such is a religious vocation in the Church. If you think God might be calling you to be a priest, religious, or permanent deacon, call Fr. Chris Lemieux, Vocation Director, Archdiocese of Toronto 416-968-0997

On any given night, 6,000 people across Canada between 16 and 24 have nowhere to call home. This represents 20 per cent of the total homeless population. The ShareLife-supported Rights of Passage program at Covenant House has been active in making a positive difference in the lives of homeless youth on the streets of Toronto. The program matches adolescents with mentors, who help them build life skills. By supporting ShareLife, you're helping at-risk youth prepare for life on their own.
