PASTOR'S DESK

WELCOME BACK TO CHURCH

The Church is open for you to come for private prayer or community prayer. As COVID-19 cases decline and the number of people who've gotten the vaccine increases, it is an opportunity for us see each other in person and pray together.

SAFETY is still the priority. If you are grieving, isolated, or still fearful, we keep you close to our heart. We connect in Live stream Masses that are available through our website.

Fr. Gigi Philip
Pastor, St. Norbert's Church

SOME THOUGHTS ON TODAY'S SCRIPTURE

No other religious leader in history insisted more clearly than Jesus Christ, that what we do in this life will have eternal consequences. The good things we do, even something as apparently insignificant as giving a cup of water, will not go unrewarded. On the other hand, our unrepented loveless actions have consequences. Thomas Merton once referred to the unspeakable triviality of much popular religion which consists precisely in not taking seriously even the possibility of these eternal consequences.

L'itinerario di Gesù verso Gerusalemme è un susseguirsi di insegnamenti e raccomandazioni; una specie di manuale catechetico, che serve da continuo confronto per la fede, ancora solo incipiente, dei discepoli.

L'interrogativo posto da uno di loro: "Abbiamo visto uno che scacciava i demoni... ma non era dei nostri" descrive bene il rigido schematismo dentro cui, loro come noi, vorremmo imprigionare la libertà dello Spirito, che soffia sempre dove e come vuole.
