Some thoughts on today's scripture

Am I like the disciples? They have plenty of common sense, but they have little faith that God can do extraordinary things. They do not yet see that with God all things are possible, even though

Jesus performed a similar miracle a little while earlier.

Lord, today let me see some of the miracles that surround me. So many good things happen to me that I don't want to take for granted. I have food and drink, while others are 'in the desert'. Someone is good to me, someone smiles. Even my computer is your gift. And I meet you, my God, in this time of prayer. Also, I am linked in with the Sacred Space community across the world. Others support me with their prayer, and I support them too. Thank you, Lord – for everything!

L'ideale religioso degli Ebrei devoti consisteva nell'osservare la legge, attraverso la quale si realizzava la volontà di Dio. Meditare, adempiere la legge, era per l'Israelita la sua "eredità", "una lampada per i suoi passi", suo "rifugio", la sua "pace" (cf. Sal 119).

Gesù è la pienezza della legge perché egli è la parola definitiva del Padre (Eb 1,1). Paolo ci dice che "chi ama il suo simile ha adempiuto la legge... Pieno compimento della legge è l'amore" (Rm 13,8-10).

Ed è anche in questo senso che Gesù è la pienezza di ogni parola che esce dalla bocca di Dio: "Perché Dio ha tanto amato il mondo da dare il suo Figlio unigenito... perché il mondo si salvi per mezzo di lui" (Gv 3,16-17).

Il cristiano è prima di tutto il discepolo di Gesù, non colui che adempie la legge. I farisei erano ossessionati dalla realizzazione letterale e minuziosa della legge; ma ne avevano completamente perso lo spirito. Di qui la parola di Gesù: "Se la vostra giustizia non supera quella degli scribi e dei farisei..."

"No eye has seen, nor ear heard, nor the human heart conceived, what God has prepared for those who love him." If you feel you are being invited to spread the Good News of God's love as a priest, deacon, brother or sister, contact Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations,

Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997.

World Day of the Sick 2023

World Day of the Sick is observed annually on February 11th, the same day as the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes. The day was established by Pope John Paul II in 1992 to offer support and comfort to those who are sick and to raise awareness about the challenges faced by those living with illness and disability. The World Day of the Sick 2023 theme is "standing beside those who suffer on a path of charity".
