Some thoughts on today's scripture

Jesus reminds us many times that, if we have faith, nothing is impossible. Martha's faith is indomitable. Knowing that the tomb contains the decomposing body of her beloved brother, she can still summon up the words, "even now I know that God will give you whatever you ask of him". Do I truly believe that anything is possible for one who believes?

When I am entombed in hopelessness, may I hear the voice of Jesus, as Lazarus did. Let me hear those blessed words he uttered at Lazarus' grave: "Unbind him, and let him go."

Il racconto della risurrezione di Lazzaro è una delle "storie di segni" che racconta san Giovanni. Si tratta qui di presentare Gesù, vincitore della morte. Il racconto culmina nella frase di Gesù su se stesso: "Io sono la risurrezione e la vita. Chi crede in me non morrà in eterno" (vv. 25-26).

Che Dio abbia il potere di vincere la morte, è già la convinzione dei racconti tardivi dell'Antico Testamento. La visione che ha Ezechiele della risurrezione delle ossa secche - immagine del ristabilimento di Israele dopo la catastrofe dell'esilio babilonese - presuppone questa fede (Ez 37,1-14). Nella sua "Apocalisse", Isaia si aspetta che Dio sopprima la morte per sempre, che asciughi le lacrime su tutti i volti (Is 25,8). E, per concludere, il libro di Daniele prevede che i morti si risvegliano - alcuni per la vita eterna, altri per l'orrore eterno (Dn 12,2). Ma il nostro Vangelo va oltre questa speranza futura, perché vede già date in Gesù "la risurrezione e la vita" che sono così attuali. Colui che crede in Gesù ha già una parte di questi doni della fine dei tempi. Egli possiede una "vita senza fine" che la morte fisica non può distruggere. In Gesù, rivelazione di Dio, la salvezza è presente, e colui che è associato a lui non può più essere consegnato alle potenze della morte.

Reflection during the Season of Lent

Lent offers us a privileged season to reflect on our discipleship and the unity to which we are called as a Church.

It is just before his betrayal and arrest that Jesus prays to the Father, "May they be one...that the world may believe..." (Jn 17: 21).

This weekend is ShareLife Sunday

ShareLife Sunday marks the first collection for our parish's annual campaign. In the words of Cardinal Collins:

"Vulnerable members of our community are relying on you and me to ensure ongoing access to the care they so desperately need. This is why it's crucial we meet our parish campaign goal. Our goal can be met, but only if we each do our part."

Our parish goal this year is $27,800.00. Please give at the parish using a ShareLife envelope, online through our parish website, or at sharelife.org/donate.

You are going to learn from the people before you teach them anything.
