Some thoughts on today's scripture

They looked down from heaven - the Father, Son and Holy Spirit - with love for their people - for all of us. They could see men and women of all races, colours, ages, faiths, holiness and sin. They knew help was needed for the human race and they waited a long time before the time was right. Prayer inserts us into our true space of belonging - into the community of the Trinity, and in that prayer, we are called to bring this divine help to the human race.

In love for me, God desires my salvation, my being made whole.

Spesso ci si immagina un "Dio" lontano, astratto, ridotto quasi a un sistema di idee contorte o semplicissime, ma inesplicabili.

Soprattutto quando ci si accosta alla dottrina della Trinità, si ha l'impressione di essere di fronte a una sciarada beffarda.

E invece, l'essere concretissimo di Dio è comunione che liberamente si effonde. Anzi, ci chiama a varcare la soglia della sua vita intima e beatificante.

Non riusciamo a capire perché Dio si sia interessato di noi: più di quanto, forse, noi ci interessiamo a noi stessi.

Proprio mentre eravamo peccatori, il Padre ha mandato il suo Figlio per offrirci la vita nuova nello Spirito. Liberamente. Per amore. "Dio ha tanto amato il mondo da dare il suo Figlio unigenito".

Show your love for others by giving on ShareLife Sunday

Today's Gospel talks about God's love for us that he gave us his only Son for us to be saved through his life and sacrifice.

We are called to live by this love and faithfulness. Your generous contributions speak of love for others and allow ShareLife agencies take care of those in most need.

Today is also the third ShareLife Sunday of the year. If you have not yet donated, you may give at the parish using a ShareLife envelope, online through our parish website, or at sharelife.org/donate.

Thank you for your generosity and for living the Gospel by giving to ShareLife!

The feast of the Most Holy Trinity renews our mission of living in communion with God and all people on the model of the divine communion.
