TWENTY-FIRST SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Reflection on the Gospel

This Sunday's Mass readings conclude a four-week meditation on the Eucharist.

The Twelve Apostles in today's Gospel are asked to make a choice—either to believe and accept the New Covenant He offers in His Body and Blood or return to their former ways of life.

Their choice is prefigured by the decision Joshua asks the Twelve Tribes to make in today's First Reading.

Joshua gathers them at Shechem—where God first appeared to their father Abraham promising to make his descendants a great nation in a new land (see Genesis 12:1-9). And he issues a blunt challenge: either renew their covenant with God or serve the alien gods of the surrounding nations.

We too are being asked today to decide whom we will serve. For four weeks we have been presented in the liturgy with the mystery of the Eucharist—a daily miracle far greater than those performed by God in bringing the Israelites out of the land of Egypt.

He has promised us a new homeland and eternal life, offering us bread from heaven to strengthen us on our journey. He has told us that unless we eat His Flesh and drink His Blood, we will have no life in us.

NOVITA' Sulle Intezioni delle messe NEWS about the Mass Intentions

Sapendo che molte persone non possono venire in ufficio per seguarsi le intenzioni di messe, ora le messe possono essere seguate per telefono o email e l'offerta della messa si puo' portare nello stesso giorno in cui la messa viene detta. Così, diventa piu' facile chiedere le proprie intenzioni di messe. Ricordatevi di mettere i nomi delle intenzioni sulla busta con l'offerta.

Now you don't need to come to the office to book a mass intention and give your donation. You may call or email the office for booking and bring the 'payment' offering to church when you have your mass booked. Please, write on the envelope offering the name, time and date of your intention(s).
