FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Some thoughts on today's scripture

Jesus spent a lot of time with the sick, and it took a lot out of him. Once he said he felt power going out of him. Anyone sick arrived, hoping to be cured, like a modern-day Accident and Emergency Department. He cured many but not all; that's a bit of mystery. Some had faith and were cured; some were cured by others' faith, and all were treated with care and love. He wants to cure, and sometimes does. Why one and not another? Still an unknown. What he gives is always love; he will sit forever like a parent with a child and console. That quality, that heartfelt love, that great care was noticed and spoken about everywhere. That was the miracle for us all. Jesus' whirlwind first day of ministry in Galilee continues! Note the use of the term 'at once' which indicates the urgency Jesus felt to share the Good News of God's love, presence and power, he preaches it and practises it. Jesus' first healing in Mark is of a woman. He overrides the purity laws by touching her, a woman, who was perhaps not far from death--corpses were judged unclean. As health returns to her, she chooses to serve Jesus and his group by cooking up a meal. Simple service characterises the true disciple.

Gesù passa tra noi e ci guarisce. Ci ha rigenerati e guariti con la grazia del battesimo e ci rinnova ogni giorno con la sua misericordia.

Siamo dei salvati, ma lo siamo per essere segno del Cristo presso i nostri fratelli e le nostre sorelle.

La suocera di Pietro dà ad ognuno di noi l'esempio di chi, guarito dal Cristo, sceglie di servire.

Le folle cercano Gesù attratte da ciò che egli dice e dai segni che opera. È la carità che le richiama e la carità è certamente il segno più luminoso e distintivo di ogni comunità cristiana.

Ma per essere davvero testimoni e annunciatori del Cristo occorre ancorare la propria vita nella preghiera e nella contemplazione: Gesù si ritira a pregare solo in un luogo deserto e indica la strada maestra che dobbiamo seguire se vogliamo essere suoi veri discepoli.

Jesus created much excitement in His day through His preaching, teaching, and healing. Today, the Church communicates that same wonder and grace by those active in priesthood, religious life, and lay ministries. If you think God is calling you to be a priest, religious, or permanent deacon, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997.
