SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Some thoughts on today's scripture

The most painful wounds we carry with us from the past are more wounds of the spirit than of the body. Of these spiritual wounds the one that causes us most pain is that of a belief that we are insignificant. In this Gospel story we hear in Jesus' words to the leper, his concern to heal this wound we carry with us from the past.

In your prayer today tell Jesus of some way you were hurt or wounded by something people said or did to you. Listen to how sensitive and responsive he is when he is "moved with pity" or compassion for you. Tell him how you feel about him being like this.

Attend carefully to the leper's prayer: "If you choose, you can make me clean". And to Jesus' reply: "I do choose. Be made clean". What does this exchange tell you about the leper's convictions and feelings, as well as those of Jesus? Have you seen this pattern in your own prayers of petition?

Il profeta Isaia proclamava che il Messia sarebbe venuto per annunciare la buona novella ai poveri. Gesù, commentando questo testo nella sinagoga di Nazaret, dice solennemente: "Questa parola della Scrittura... si adempie oggi" (Lc 4, 18-19).

Ma Gesù è venuto per guarire le malattie dei poveri, spesso in modo straordinario o prodigioso? Certo Gesù dà spesso prova della sua misericordia di fronte alle sofferenze umane. Ma, in ogni caso, questi sono segni del potere che il Figlio dell'uomo ha ricevuto da colui che lo ha mandato per liberare da una schiavitù più profonda, da una lebbra più cronica, per liberare dal peccato.

Chi può perdonare i peccati, se non Dio? "Ora, perché sappiate che il Figlio dell'uomo ha il potere in terra di rimettere i peccati: alzati disse al paralitico, prendi il tuo letto e va' a casa tua" (Mt 9,6).

Today's Gospel says that "Jesus was moved with pity when He saw a leper". Are you moved with love and compassion when you see the outcasts of today's society? Today, Jesus continues to call forward men and women to minister as he did. If you think God is calling you to be a priest, religious, or permanent deacon, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997.

World Day of the Sick, 11 February 2024

"The sick, the vulnerable and the poor are at the heart of the Church; they must also be at the heart of our human concern and pastoral attention."

- Pope Francis

Message: XXXII World Day of the Sick

Prayer for the Sick

All-powerful and ever-living God, for the lasting health of all
who believe in you,
hear us as we ask your loving help
for the sick;
restore their health, that they may again, offer joyful thanks in your Church.
Grant this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Marriage Sunday February 10/11, 2024

"Marriage is a precious sign, for when a man and a woman celebrate the sacrament of marriage, God is, as it were, 'mirrored' in them; he impresses in them his own features and the indelible character of his love. Marriage is the icon of God's love for us."

From Pope Francis' Amoris Laetitia

Support Alma Rose's Journey to Recovery

Alma Rose, a cherished parishioner of St. Norbert's Church and a dedicated caregiver specializing in dementia has profoundly impacted many lives. Her commitment led her to begin a book on dementia care, sharing her deep compassion and expertise. Tragically, after surviving two brain aneurysms since October 2022, Alma Rose has been courageously battling to recover, showing promising signs of progress despite severe setbacks, including paralysis and a coma.

Alma Rose requires long-term care and rehabilitation, which costs $2,250 per month. We need to raise $25,000 to fund her care for the next year so that she can recover and regain her independence.

Your contribution can help Alma Rose on her journey to recovery. Every donation will aid in easing the financial burden and support Alma Rose's fight to regain health. We appreciate any support you can offer. Thank you.

You can make donations online by visiting gofund.me/97440080
