TWELFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Some thoughts on today's scripture

Even in the presence of Jesus, with the memory of his words fresh in their minds, the disciples doubted. Like them, I bring my doubts and questions to Jesus and listen for his answer.

They were asking a question which they would ask again,

'Who is this man?' Being obeyed by wind and sea is a statement about being more than human. Our involvement with Jesus and our engagement with him in our lives will often bring that question to the fore. In prayer we grow in heart-knowledge of Jesus, not always being able to put words on our faith in him. Like the apostles, we know that he is a mystery - at once Son of God and son of the earth. In the trials and troubles of life, Jesus often seems to be asleep, heedless of my plight. In prayer, I will call out to him and, no doubt, I will hear his voice saying, "Peace! Be still! Why are you afraid? Have you no faith?"

God does not solve our problems but gives us the grace and the strength we need to resolve them.

In questo brano tutto è volto a descrivere la situazione dell'umanità nella sua lenta storia e tutto mira ad annunciare il piano divino che il Figlio di Dio vuole realizzare. È venuta la sera: la notte della paura e del dubbio; la fine del giorno e delle sue effimere certezze. Gesù invita la sua Chiesa a prendere il largo e a "passare" all'altra riva. Si tratta di un invito alla Pasqua che è un "passaggio": passaggio del mar Rosso per il popolo eletto, liberato dalla schiavitù e condotto alla libertà; passaggio dalla morte per il Figlio dell'uomo liberato dal peccato e condotto alla gloria. L'altra riva è la riva di Dio, la riva che non si vede e di cui Gesù rivela il cammino (Gv 14,4). La barca che attraversa il lago con i discepoli e Gesù è la Chiesa. Come l'arca di Noè, essa è stata costruita appositamente per "passare". Ma scoppia una tempesta. Le forze del male si scatenano contro di essa. La barca si riempie d'acqua, qui simbolo di morte: l'acqua toglie il respiro all'uomo.

Securities as a Charitable Gift Option

One of the most financially sound ways to support the Archdiocese of Toronto is with the gift of securities (stocks, bonds, mutual funds). When you donate stocks, mutual funds and other publicly traded securities to a registered charity, you pay no capital gains tax and receive a tax receipt for the full amount of the gift. It means a great tax break for you and more significant support of your Parish and various archdiocesan charities such as ShareLife, St. Augustine's Seminary, The Shepherds' Trust and many others.

To donate securities, follow this link: <https://bit.ly/GiftsOfSecurities> where you will find our "How to Gift Securities Info Sheet" and a "Letter of Direction."

For more information, contact our office at development@archtoronto.org.

Your generous heart provides for hungry children

Through your support for ShareLife, Canadian Food for Children, a ShareLife-funded agency, provides hungry children in vulnerable communities clothing, shoes, and nutritious food. Thank you for joining the fight against hunger by sharing your blessings.

Thus far we have raised $14,435.00 toward our goal of $29,400.00. Please give at the parish using a ShareLife envelope, online through our parish website, or at sharelife.org/donate.

Jesus brought peace to the wind and the sea. "Peace! Be still!" Many are searching for this peace and need your help to find Jesus. Would you be willing to proclaim the truth of God's love and presence in your life as a priest, religious or permanent deacon? If you think God is calling you, call Fr. Matt McCarthy, Director of Vocations, Archdiocese of Toronto at 416-968-0997.

JUNE 23, 2024

Fr. Augusto

It feels like it was yesterday when we welcomed you as our new pastor. Saying goodbye to you leaves us with hearts full of gratitude. Your time with us has been a gift, and we're thankful to God, for having had the chance to know you, and grow in faith under your guidance.

We extend our heartfelt wishes for success and happiness in all your future endeavours. May your path be paved with the same positivity you've brought into our lives.

St. Norbert's Parish Community

CONSIDERING BECOMING CATHOLIC?

If you are interested in joining us as a member of the Catholic Church, NOW is a very good time to make inquiries through the RCIA process. There is no obligation, only a warm welcome, and answers to your questions. The RCIA (Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults) process is for:

- Those who are not baptized (adults and children 7 and older) and feel the call to become members of our Catholic family;
- Those who are baptized non-Catholic and would like to join the Catholic Church;
- Those who were baptized in the Catholic Church but have not participated in Eucharist and/or Confirmation (preparing for Confirmation and/or First Communion).

For more information, please phone the parish office.
