Some thoughts on today's scripture

Lord, you terrify me with this command: "Go and teach all nations." You were talking to eleven men, without education, money or influence, in a despised province of the Roman Empire. But they obeyed you, because they knew you were with them. And today Christians are the largest body of believers on this planet. Today's preaching is different. We are educated, sometimes too well. It is harder than ever to make our voice heard.

A man went out on a starry night and shook his fist at the heavens yelling, "Oh, God, what a lousy, rotten world you've made. I could have done much better." Then a voice boomed from the clouds saying, "That's why I put you there. Get busy." The Ascension is the time when Jesus puts us in charge of his mission and of his work, promising to be always with us. Prayer can be a time of asking and discovering where each of us can work in this world.

Il Nuovo Testamento fonda l'universalità della missione nello speciale rapporto che Gesù risorto ha con ogni uomo. Il Vangelo dev'essere annunciato a ogni uomo, perché Gesù è la verità dell'uomo, ha ricevuto dal Padre ogni potere in cielo e in terra, perché ha fatto la volontà del Padre fino alla morte aprendo così per ogni uomo la via verso la pienezza della vita. Di qui le caratteristiche della missione:

- la forza che l'anima è lo Spirito Santo che da Gesù risorto viene promesso e trasmesso ai discepoli, come principio della vita nuova, che deve essere annunciata e comunicata a ogni uomo;

- il contenuto della missione è la sequela di Cristo, l'obbedienza al Vangelo, l'osservanza dei comandi di Gesù, l'adesione battesimale alla vita del Padre, del Figlio e dello Spirito Santo, il distacco dalla vita incredula, implorando e accogliendo la remissione dei peccati;

- la speranza che sostiene i missionari nelle fatiche e nelle difficoltà è la certezza che Gesù è sempre con loro sino alla fine del mondo.
